Your gift. Your community.

PRESIDENT'S PODIUM

Dear Friends:

We are blessed in our community to have had forward looking leaders who created the Lexington Community Foundation years ago. Their vision, along with the many generous donors and eager volunteers, has made and will continue to make a positive impact on this community for generations to come. I am honored to help carry on their work and their vision as president of the Lexington Community Foundation for the next two years.

Our community is known for its collaborative nature as both the public and private entities work in partnership and embrace the "we can do this" spirit. The Foundation is continuing to be proactive in ways to make Lexington and the surrounding area a better place to live. Despite the recent economic turmoil that has affected everyone, the Foundation continues to thrive thanks to the generosity of friends and supporters like you.

As a new Foundation year starts, I would first like to welcome our two new board members Larry Reynolds and Dave Stenberg and thank them for their willingness to serve. I would like to thank Patty Mandelko for her positive attitude and commitment to the success of the Foundation during her recent term as president I also extend a heartfelt thank you to the two retiring board members, Ed Bennett and Ed Darby. Their countless hours of service, over 40 years combined on the board, has been invaluable to the Foundation and to the community. Their vision, experience, and insight will be greatly missed.

As we reflect upon our past accomplishments and successes, we must remember to continue to look forward to finding ways to fulfill our mission "to encourage and strengthen philanthropy in order to provide a permanent source of funding for opportunities to improve the quality of life, strengthen the sense of community, and benefit future generations in Lexington, Nebraska." Our community exemplifies perfectly the idea of having a generous spirit, for generosity is an effortless, spontaneous act of giving of ourselves or what we have to a person or cause that is deemed valuable. Thank you for your time, your ideas, and most of all your generous spirit.

*Sincerely,
Dan Clark,
President*

Helen Stuckey Barrett Building a Legacy for Another Century

She often reminisced about the changes she had seen in her lifetime From hand-washing laundry with lye soap, kerosene lamps, bath water heated on top of a coal fire stove, and tonsillectomies performed on the kitchen table to electric appliances and lights, running water, and modern medicine. Helen Stuckey Barrett died February 16, 2009. She was 103.

Helen's ties to Lexington began in 1915 when her family relocated here. She attended Lexington Public Schools until 1921, graduating from Linden College Academy near St. Louis, Missouri in 1923, and Hastings College in 1927. She returned to Lexington after marrying Lexington native, Harold O. Barrett. Over the next 82 years, Helen a devoted wife and mother, was an active church member and involved community volunteer. Lexington has lost a town treasure.

In the late 1980's, her donation to the public library's building fund was the final gift that allowed the library board to purchase the house nest to the library.

In her will Helen directed a gift to the Lexington Community Foundation . . .

We believe the relationship with the donor is valued as much as the gift.

Key 2009 Raises $230,000

The seventh annual LCF Key dinner and auction was held on May 2, 2009 with more than $230,000 being raised to benefit community projects. The proceeds are earmarked for:

- ◆ City of Lexington's comprehensive Parks & Trails plan;
- ◆ The YMCA of Lexington Founder's Campaign (see pages 6 & 7, and the insert included in this newsletter for details);
- ◆ and the Foundation's Endowment Fund.

The total raised from all Key events now exceeds $1.2 million dollars. In addition to the Parks and Trails plan and the YMCA of Lexington, Key proceeds have been benefitted the Lexington Public Library, the Grand Generation Center; Dawson County Historical Society, Lexington Main Street, Heartland Museum of Military Vehicles, and the Optimist Rec Complex and Hitting Facility.

Thank you!
to all who support the Foundation's Key event.

Call for Auction Donations

The success of the our Key events is attributed not only to those who purchased a ticket and participated in the event, but to every business and individual that donated:

- ◆ an auction item;
- ◆ cash as "Key Friends" to underwrite auction items; or
- ◆ time and expertise to plan, set up and tear down the event.

The Lexington Community Foundation is beginning to plan and acquire items for Key 2010. You are invited to participate! Call the Foundation anytime to discuss your donation.

YMCAs have a unique ability—through our reach, our values, and our programs, we nurture children, strengthen families and guide individuals to make a difference by building on our collective power. YMCA of the USA is a foundation through a community partnership dedicated to help all reach their full potential. And with that, this is what we have been called to do.

YMCAs exist to help all reach their full potential. And with that, this is what we have been called to do.

Neil Nicoll
President and CEO
YMCA of the USA

This is an exciting time for an already progressive community. The generosity of Lexington supporters will make it possible to begin YMCA programming that will impact the health, wellness and spirit of this area for generations. For more information about YMCA of Lexington, or how you can become involved, please see the brochure included in with this newsletter.

YMCA of Lexington Timeline

July 2007 – Lexington Community Foundation (LCF) board of directors discuss the possibility of a community center / YMCA / indoor pool / expanded rec center in Lexington; data comparisons of these types of facilities from neighboring communities is compiled from interviews and site visits.

September 2007 - 1st meeting of the steering committee. The agenda is to address the question asked by community members - can Lexington have a YMCA (type facility)? Is there a need? What is needed? What are our options? How will it be sustained? Who will be responsible for the day-to-day operations, staff, and maintenance of this type of facility?

- Steering members include:
 Joe Peplitsch, City Manager
 Todd Chessmore, Superintendent of Schools
 Cal Hiner, Tri-County Hospital (TCH) Administrator
 Jerry Brown, LCF Development Committee & TCH Board President
 Dave Fairbanks, LCF Development Committee chair
 Patty Mandelko, LCF President

Mogens Knudsen, LCF Treas. & Finance Committee chair
 Jackie Berke, LCF Executive Director

October 2007 - YMCA of the USA is contacted for information. Jolleen Clymer, Management Consultant for YMCA of the USA, is on the steering committee – October 25

January 2008 – YMCA of the USA conducts Community Assessment Survey in Lexington

February 2008 – Steering committee receives findings from the Community Assessment report gives support to pursuing a YMCA in Lexington as a branch of either Holdrege (of the Prairie) or Kearney YMCA. Initial decision made with both locations.

July 2008- Holdrege/Lexington Task Force formed

January 2009 – Lexington Branch Community standing committees are formed

May 2009 - YMCA of the USA approves Lexington as a branch of YMCA of the USA

June 2009 – Founder’s Campaign begins

October 2009 – Anticipated start to YMCA programming in Lexington

About the YMCA

THE NATION'S 2,686 YMCAs respond to critical social needs by drawing on our collective strength as one of the largest not-for-profit community service organizations in the United States.

Today's YMCAs serve thousands of U.S. communities, uniting 21 million children and adults of all ages, races, faiths, backgrounds, abilities and income levels. Our reach and impact can be seen in the millions of lives we touch every year. Across the nation, YMCAs are committed to helping:

- Children and youth deepen positive values, their commitment to service and their motivation to learn
- Families build stronger bonds, spend time together and become more engaged with their communities
- Individuals strengthen their spiritual, mental and physical well-being

At every stage of life, YMCAs are there to help children, families and individuals reach their full potential.
