I live in an incredible community! And, after you are finished reading this issue of the Forum, I guarantee you will feel the same.

With the successful culmination of yet another great capital campaign in building the Orthman YMCA, Lexington is once again leading by example serving as a model for the state. The Y is not only sustaining, but even growing in membership with the most diverse demographic for a town this size.

Through the generosity of its local citizens, the impact Lexington continues to make upon our young people is truly remarkable. From Mr. Hoehner’s award winning Destination Graduation project to all of the scholarships distributed every spring, our community gives our youth a sense of hope, purpose and vision.

Our growing list of memorials speak to the tribute we have toward our community leaders who have passed. What a beautiful way to say “thanks” to friends and loved ones who have spent a lifetime making Lexington what it is today.

We are not stopping there. By introducing to you three new affiliated funds, we are giving you more options to contribute on Give BIG Lexington coming up on November 10th.

We hope to see many of you at our annual Fall Luncheon on November 2nd, a great one-hour event where we don’t ask for a thing, nor do we try and sell you anything, but simply celebrate the great works of our community.

We live in an incredible community!

Sincerely,
Tom Fagot, President

DIRECTED MEMORIALS

LCF receives many memorial gifts throughout the year. Families often name the Lexin gton Community Foundation, or any of the dozens of funds that we administer, as the beneficiary of suggested memorials. These gifts are a meaningful tribute to the family member they have lost.

Below are examples of memorial gifts that have been directed to LCF in the past nine months. Families are always welcome to direct gifts or create a charitable fund in the family name. Contact the Foundation for more information.

Kerry & Marion Anderson

Kerry and Marion were life-long, second generation Lexington residents who graduated from Lexington High School, went to college and returned to Lexington to farm and raise their family. They passed away this year, just months apart. Gifts in their memory were directed to Lexington Community Foundation, YMCA Pool Fund and the Lexington Regional Health Center Charitable Fund.

William E. “Bill” Barrett

Bill believed that “Service to others is the best work of life.” He certainly lived a life that was centered on service and giving. This community, state and nation have benefitted from him sharing more than 50 years of his knowledge and expertise. Gifts in memory of Bill have been directed to Lexington Community Foundation and Dawson County Historical Museum at Lexington Community Foundation.

Dr. John Barron

John was a renowned Lexington dentist. With a joke, a magic trick or some far-fetched tale he was entertaining to those who knew him well. John especially enjoyed working with children – they loved his whimsical nature. Gifts in memory of John were directed to the Majestic Theatre Fund at Lexington Community Foundation.

Eileen Biehl

Eileen was born and raised in Lexington and graduated from Lexington High School with the class of 1936. She was a kind, sweet lady and a “go-getter” from the start. She particularly enjoyed water aerobic workouts with her friends. Memorial gifts for Eileen were directed to Lexington Community Foundation and to the YMCA Pool Fund.

Sandy Hove

Sandy and her family enjoyed their time at Johnson Lake until relocating to Lincoln to be closer to family. Fittingly, the family suggested that memorials be directed to the Johnson Lake Trails Fund at Lexington Community Foundation. A memorial bench in her memory will be placed at a rest stop near the Hove’s former cabin.

Ryan Johnson

Ryan was born in Lexington and grew up in Kearney. Memorial gifts were directed to Johnson Lake EMS where various members of his family have proudly served for years. Johnson Lake EMS is an affiliate fund at Lexington Community Foundation.

Kathy Neil

Kathy’s entire life seemed to be centered around giving. Having lived most of her life in Lexington, she was a committed and dedicated volunteer for many church and community groups, including the Lexington Community Foundation. Her contributions to this community will certainly leave a lasting impression on the many lives she has touched. Gifts in memory of Kathy were directed to Lexington Regional Health Center Charitable Fund at Lexington Community Foundation.

Roger B. Owens

Because of his love of baseball, and because baseball was something they enjoyed together, one cause Roger’s family suggested memorials be directed to was the Lexington Baseball Association Fund at Lexington Community Foundation. A perfect tribute to someone who loved the game.

Shirley Reynolds

Shirley enjoyed attending all Lexington activities involving youth. She cheered on every child from Lexington as if he or she was her own. While her husband Norman was still alive, they did everything together and at the time of his death the Norman & Shirley Reynolds Scholarship Fund was created. Memorials for Shirley were suggested to the Lexington Community Foundation or the Norman & Shirley Reynolds Scholarship Fund at Lexington Community Foundation.
It all began 14 years ago when LCF directors met with a panel of community leaders to discuss the possibility of Lexington having a community center. That initial meeting spurred a series of milestones that ultimately resulted in Lexington’s current Orthman Community YMCA. The YMCA Founder’s Campaign in 2009 raised $840,000 for the initial three years of programming at a temporary facility leased from Lexington Public Schools. Within two years, it was evident that a permanent facility was imminent. A capital fundraising effort began in March 2012 and by the end of that year more than $5 million dollars had been raised or committed. Construction began in October 2012, and two years later, on October 20, 2014, the doors opened at the new facility.

LEXINGTON COMMUNITY FOUNDATION serves as a fiscal agent for the capital campaign and has worked directly with Lexington Public Schools, the YMCA of the Prairie governing board and the Lexington Community Facilities Agency in coordinating the efforts of the project. The campaign allowed for pledges to be repaid over five years. The end of collection period, for most pledges, is December 31, 2016. To date, 94% of the 5-year pledges have been realized - an outstanding figure! There are a few pledges that will continue to pay beyond this year-end, but ultimately LCF projects a 99% collection rate of this campaign which raised a total of $5.8M, primarily from private funding sources.

Furthermore, Riley Gruntorad, Orthman Community YMCA Director, reports “We are currently at 1,379 Membership Units, which is our highest month yet and we continue to grow.” Tod McKeone, YMCA chairman, reinforces this figure by saying, “Your YMCA continues to make an impact on our community and beyond. Membership continues to grow as we touch families and individuals of all ages and economic abilities not only in Lexington, but in surrounding communities. In addition to the limitless opportunities for healthy living, your Y provides an excellent recruiting tool for young professionals considering a move to our community as well as job opportunities for many.”

The mission of the Y is witnessed each and every day. Gruntorad continues, “I think what is so special about the YMCA is that everyday is different when you come to work or workout. The people you get to see and socialize with while working out are great. It’s very cool that we get to see people and kids ranging from 6 weeks old to 96 years old. It’s a place where everyone in our community can come and benefit in many ways. Everyone is welcome and included, our staff is devoted to helping our community grow and provide a safe and fun atmosphere for all.”
NEW AFFILIATE FUNDS

LEXINGTON COMMUNITY FOUNDATION (LCF) is a valuable resource for causes that seek to benefit and enhance the quality of life for the residents of Lexington. Affiliation with LCF offers a number of benefits that balance local control with professional management services. Below is a brief synopsis of the newest causes to partner with LCF.

DOWNTOWN HOLIDAY DECORATION FUND
The City of Lexington has established the DOWNTOWN HOLIDAY DECORATION FUND with LEXINGTON COMMUNITY FOUNDATION in an effort to raise funds to purchase lighted downtown holiday decorations that will be installed each year during the holiday season between Thanksgiving and New Year’s Day. Over the last decade the City has stepped up measures to improve the aesthetics of downtown with projects such as historic street lights, new banners, vacant lot beautification, large flower planters and other landscaping.

The City feels the benefits of additional holiday decorations would be to increase the attractiveness and inviting nature of downtown - especially when consumers are shopping for gifts, to create fresh images to promote Lexington and to provide a modicum of additional illumination during the darker holiday season.

The Downtown Holiday Decoration Fund would continue the City’s efforts to improve the aesthetics of downtown Lexington.

TEAMMATES OF LEXINGTON
TeamMates is a school-based, one-to-one mentoring program co-founded by Dr. Tom and Nancy Osborne in 1991 to provide youth with friendship and a positive example.

The Lexington TeamMates Mentoring program received a startup grant in 2000 from LEXINGTON COMMUNITY FOUNDATION and, in 2005, a permanent TeamMates scholarship fund was established with the Foundation. This past summer TEAMMATES OF LEXINGTON established an endowment fund with the Foundation for the benefit of financial and administrative services.

The goal of TeamMates of Lexington is to see youth graduate and pursue a post-secondary education. To reach this goal, youth meet once a week - for one hour - with a caring adult who serves as a mentor. Mentors give youth a sense of hope, purpose and vision which are powerful tools that will help them succeed in life. TeamMates’ biggest challenge is having enough mentors to match with the students. Each year, the need for mentors grows.

THE CHRISTMAS PROJECT
A group of local citizens began to take notice of the lack of holiday decorations and lighting on display in Lexington. In December of 2015 they went to the Dawson County Commissioners with a request to allow them to install lighting and decorations including a Nativity scene as well as secular displays including a Santa Claus, reindeer, etc. on the Dawson County Court House grounds. The request was unanimously approved by the Dawson County Commissioners.

A committee was organized and they established THE CHRISTMAS PROJECT with LEXINGTON COMMUNITY FOUNDATION. Their goal is to procure and install festive lighting as well as Nativity and secular yard displays to be set on the building and grounds of the Dawson County Courthouse. The Christmas Project’s decorations will be on display from the weekend after Thanksgiving to the first weekend after New Year’s Day, bringing the holiday spirit to Lexington for everyone to enjoy.

Financial contributions can be made to LEXINGTON COMMUNITY FOUNDATION in support of these funds or any of the other affiliate funds held at the Foundation.

LCF Event Sponsorship

When a community is strong, success is inevitable.

Because of you, over $164 million has been distributed back into Lexington and the Johnson Lake area by the Foundation since 1996. The Foundation firmly believes that communities should feel great about being generous together. Lexington accomplishes that!

We are inviting you to partner with Lexington Community Foundation. Those who partner with us are given recognition through their LCF newsletter, LCF website, Give BIG Lexington website, print materials, and media sources.

By obtaining annual sponsorships, the Foundation helps maximize the impact your donor dollars have in this community. We appreciate the many ways you continue to support the work of the Foundation and its activities. We recognize that our success is not possible without you.

With fifteen Key events in the books, LEXINGTON COMMUNITY FOUNDATION relishes in the fact that we have by-passed the three and a half million dollar mark.

Each year net proceeds of the funds raised at our Key event are earmarked by the LCF Board of Directors to benefit the community of Lexington within the year that they are raised. The impact has been incredible!

This 15th Key event was held at the Holiday Inn Express on Saturday, May 7th with 340 people in attendance. It is the tireless efforts and commitment of board members, their families and countless community volunteers that allow the event to take place. Donations of cash and items are collected throughout the year allowing us to offer something for all ages, lifestyles and at all price points. This past year's Key featured 410 silent auction items, 53 live auction items and two raffles. Prizes ranged from toys to trips. The result: more than $332,000 raised.

Tom Fagot, LCF President and Event Committee chair, describes it this way “This seemed to be a turning point for the Key this year. The online bidding has taken on a life of its own in establishing a group of out of town bidders who are very active throughout the evening. And, we are seeing a lot younger crowd at the evening’s celebration enjoying themselves in celebrating all the positive things that are going on in Lexington.”

LEXINGTON COMMUNITY FOUNDATION will host a Mardi Gras themed Key '17 on Saturday, April 22, 2017 at Holiday Inn Express in Lexington. Reservations can be made beginning Monday, October 3, 2016.

We will again offer a Preview Night, which is open to the public, on Friday, April 21st.

If you are unable to attend the event, be sure to check the auction out online beginning Monday, April 17th. You do not need to be present to...
What began as a leap of faith from the Lexington Community Foundation five years ago to work alongside Lexington High School (LHC) to provide a rigorous, yet attainable pathway for teachers and students to work side-by-side to improve graduation rates has grown into a vitally important, systemic, school-wide process that continues to define our school’s focus of making LHS a model academic institution.

Destination: Graduation has evolved into a system of mutual accountability that involves every student and every staff member. LCF recently agreed to continue their invaluable support by providing another $100,000 for the next four years, making the 8-year total $200,000.

Destination: Graduation is an educational program that was created five years ago at LHS to address the challenges of 75 percent poverty, 20 percent English language learners, and some of the state’s lowest achievement scores and graduation rates. The collaborative, relationship-driven school-community initiative has personalized Lexington’s school environment and increased stakeholder accountability. Our shared mantra, “Teachers Will Never Give Up On Students and Students Will Never Give Up On Themselves or Each Other,” drives weekly student-teacher academic, activity, and behavioral growth conferences, academic pep rallies, cohort graduation competition, the “Gathering of Champions” initiative, and “Foundations of Leadership” program. Our 95 percent attendance and 91 percent graduation support a dramatic 3-year growth in graduation rate and state assessment improvement.

This valuable alliance has placed the Destination: Graduation Program in the local, state and national spotlight. Last year, LHS was identified as one of 18 secondary schools nationwide to be identified as a “Breaking Ranks” school by the National Association of Secondary School Principals. This is an incredible honor, especially when considering that there are nearly 100,000 secondary schools in the U.S. The aforementioned recognition also included an opportunity for a team of LHS administrators and teachers to give a presentation to a national audience last February in Orlando, FL as part of the “NASSP National Breaking Ranks School Showcase.” The Lexington school district and community must share equally in this recognition. Our school’s success is a testimony to the collaborative work being done by our students and the school district’s teachers, administrators, parents and community. It is truly a district-wide, community-wide honor.

~ Kyle Hoehner, Lexington High School Principal
THE GIFT OF A SCHOLARSHIP
A Look into the LCF Scholarship Selection Process
By Stephanie Buell, LCF Scholarship Committee Chair

The mission of LEXINGTON COMMUNITY FOUNDATION (LCF) is “to encourage and strengthen philanthropy in order to provide a permanent source of funding for opportunities to improve the quality of life, strengthen the sense of community, and benefit future generations . . .” The scholarship committee takes this mission quite seriously when overseeing the scholarship selection process and awarding funds to qualified applicants. The committee works in conjunction with the Counseling Department of the Lexington Public Schools and follows the school policy that each student can only win one local scholarship with very few exceptions.

Funds for the scholarships are donated by individuals, families and organizations who meet with the Foundation Director to formulate their ideas into meaningful qualifications. Criteria for each scholarship can be found on the Foundation’s website. Students may review all scholarships and then apply for any or all that match their particular talents and needs. Donors may review the applications and make suggestions to the committee. The committee strictly adheres to the qualifications during the review process. Ultimately, the committee ranks a minimum of three choices per scholarship and forwards to the school, doing their best to keep family wishes in mind when applicable. The school counselors review and combine with all other scholarship information before finalizing the awards.

Many local students have benefited over the years from scholarship funds sponsored through LCF. The first two scholarships from LCF were awarded in 1988 for $500 each. This past year the committee awarded 81 scholarships to 65 students with a total value of $101,350. We awarded scholarships to 25 LHS graduates entering 4 year collegiate programs (Freshman), 32 students in upper level collegiate programs (Sophomore – Seniors), 8 students in graduate studies, 8 students attending out of state colleges, and 18 students attending community colleges, trade schools, or associate degree programs.

Development of scholarship funds are a great way to honor individuals in an ongoing manner by assisting future generations to obtain the tools they need to succeed in life. We welcome new funds from all sources and look forward to meeting more financial needs for education in the community.
